Cucumber Uborka Gurke Pepino Concombre Agúrka Ogórek Gurka Kumare Komkommer

Az uborka vagy népiesen ugorka (Cucumis sativus) a tökvirágúak (Cucurbitales) rendjébe, a tökfélék (Cucurbitaceae) családjába tartozó növényfaj. Ugyanabba a nemzetségbe tartozik, mint a sárgadinnye. Számos nemesített változata létezik. Termését fogyasztják.

Earliest cultivation

The cucumber is listed among the foods of ancient Ur, and the legend of Gilgamesh describes people eating cucumbers. Cucumbers are mentioned in the Bible as one of the foods eaten by the Israelites in Egypt. From India, it spread to Greece and Italy (where the Romans were especially fond of the crop), and later into China.

Roman Empire

According to Pliny, the Emperor Tiberius had the cucumber on his table daily during summer and winter. The Romans reportedly used artificial methods (similar to the greenhouse system) of growing to have it available for his table every day of the year. "Indeed, he was never without it; for he had raised beds made in frames upon wheels, by means of which the cucumbers were moved and exposed to the full heat of the sun; while, in winter, they were withdrawn, and placed under the protection of frames glazed with 'mirrorstone' ." 'Mirrorstone' is a literal translation of Pliny's 'lapis specularis,, believed to have been sheet mica.
